

Bored?

Try Field Experience!

What?

PSY 4810 is a variable credit class (1-6 credits) that will help you

- Learn about how psychology can be put to use
- Integrate what you learned in psychology classes with practical experience
- Develop useful psychological skills

Why?

- Valuable experience
- Possible letters of recommendation
- Fulfills modes of learning requirement

How?

- Contact the instructor as soon as possible (before the semester starts)
- Attend the mandatory meeting on Monday, January 11
  - 12:00-1:00pm or 6:00-7:00pm in RM 712 BEHS
- Volunteer 3 hrs/week for every credit taken, attend three more class meetings & complete several short writing assignments

Who?

- Dr. Ilse DeKoeyer-Laros has been coordinating 4810 for several years. She loves to learn about all of your experiences & will help you where needed (for instance, to recommend placements). She will be happy to work with you & answer any questions! For more information & to get the registration code for this class, contact Ilse at 581-2233 or ilse.dekoeyerlaros@utah.edu
- Organizations in the community
- You!